Dear Julietta and Kirana,

We are working on your paper for publication. Please review the galley proof attached and give us feedback before February 5th, 2021.

Please do not change the format and layout, which are designed for publication. Most importantly, please review the language for errors. If you change anything in the Word file, please mark it in RED or inform us via e-mail.

From July 1, 2018, we will not automatically provide authors free print journals. However, when authors really need free print copies, they are requested to kindly complete an application form (gjhs-author.ccsenet.org) to order printed copies. Once approved, we will arrange print and delivery, for a maximum of two copies per article, free of charge.
